·Нэчакома, June 28тн, 1336. As there seems to be considerable misconception with regard to the origin of the proposal to establish a branch of the Chinese Customs in this Colony, it may be meful to hai-whei. point out that the suggestion that all opium imported into the colony should be placed in bond on board a hulk until it has paid duty to the Chinese Government is only a modification of a very old proposal. Ten years ago Sir Thomas Wade suggested that, on were abolished the Government of Hong- | Spirit Licences Ordinance. kong should invite the establishment of a. branch of the Foreign Customs either in a hulk in the harbour or at some convenient point on Chinese Kowloon at which all junks from 11b. of rice daily to 12oz. should be compelled to report on entry and clearance. Sir BROOKE ROBERTSON'S Dropossi was to much the same effect, except that if included the retention of the existing stations for examining purposes. Sir John Pore Hennessy proposed that the export of salt and munitions of should only be allowed to the Chinese Government or their lawfully appointed agents, and that the duty on opinin should be collected in Hongkong, the present stations to be abolished and Chinese cruisers to cease to overhaul junks. It will be seen therefore that the community is by no means fighting with a shadow when it protests against the introduction of a branch of the supposing that the proposed new station known Medico, as Inspector-General. were situated on Chinese territory, it would be equally an interference with the freedom of the port if the local Government made it compulsory on junks to visit the station, and from a trade point of view pure and simple it would be more objectionable in Chinese territory as involving loss of time and in-

In another column we publish a letter on it is published, or to the following Agents - the silver question. Our correspondent X. is a pessimist of the pessimists and predicts that silver will fall until it reaches the price of three dollars a pound. He instances the case of another metal, copper, which, owing, to increased production, has fallen from 40 cents per pound to 12 cents, and ascribes the fall in silver wholly to the same cause, increased production. The figures of the outturn of the precious metals do not however, bear out this view, as the following. table will show:--

AVERAGE ANNUAL PRODUCTION-(900's, omitted) 1866-1870..... 60,250.... 133,850..... 194 100 1870-1875.... 88,625... 119,650... 207,675 1976-1880.... 112,500.... 119,975 232,475 113,475..... 112,925..... 226,400 — 118,525...... 108,000..... 226,525 114,218..... 91,028..... 203,216 If these figures be correct it is absurd

suppose that the fall in the price of silver relation to gold is due to overproduction, besides which we know that the purchasing nower of silver in countries having the single silver standard is as great now, as it was twelve years ago, before the fall commenced. Its_value_bis_only_decreased_in_relation_to gold and to goods coming from gold using countries, and only to a very small extent in relation to goods, which, like silver, have fallen in comparison with gold, which goes to show that the cause of the disturbance of relative values is due to the appreciation of gold and not to the depreciation of silver. As to the untold_stores of silver-still in the bowels of the earth, to which our correspondent refers, the obvious retort of the bi-metallist is that there are also untold stores of gold still unworked and undiscovered, and no one can tell which way the balance will incline in the future. Future discoveries of gold may again lead to as sharp a decline in the value of that metal as the great gold discoveries of California and Australia did. Meanwhile it is well to bear in mind that th present low exchange value of silver 122 is due to the fict of several countries which formerly had a single silver standard resorting either to a single gold standard or a limited double standard—in

The Foothow Echo of the 19th June says :--Owing to the heavy rain we have had during the last fortnight the natives prognosticate that unless the weather changes, the price of rice will go up to an enormous extent; at present we have been informed that a rise of fully seventy cents per picul has already been established. As far as we can learn, this sudden rise is attributed to the expected flood up country which the natives think inevitable.

The Northern Territory Times of the 15th May states that there is every prospect of work being shortly undertaken at the Northern end of the Transcontinental railroad, a tender having been accepted for constructing the first section, that from Port Darwin to Pine Creek. Owing to indisposition Mr. Mackean was unble to sit at the Police Court on Saturday, and in consequence a number of cases he had fixed for hearing had to be put off. These included the charge of libel by Mr T. I. Bowler against Mr. R. Fraser-Smith, of the Hongkong Telegraph, and the eternal Chinese piracy rendition case. The latter, however, could not have come on then, as there was still no interpreter, but Mr. Caldwell, who prosecutes on behalf of the Chinese authorities, stated that he had applied for a proper interpreter, and one was now on his way from Amoy. The case was further adjourned for a week, but with the understanding that if the interpreter arrived in the meantime [the hearing should be proceeded with at once.

The following are extracts from the report of Dr. Ayres, Colonial Surgeon, for last year :--

The admissions from the Police Force to Hospital show the slight increase of nine in 1885 as compared with the admissions in 1884. For the last five years the number of admissions to Hospital have been as follows:-1881, 498; 1882, 549; 1883, 599; 1884, 486; and 1885, 495; so brought in during the year, and these are yearly that the improvement in the health of the whole on the increase, (this list does not include bodies Force taken as a total, when the strength of the brought from the Government Civil Hospital for different years is taken into consideration, still examination, after death by the Coroner's order), continues. There is a large increase both in sickness and mortality among the Troops, while there is but a slight increase of 60 in their strength, noti sickness and mortality having exceeded any year in the previous ten years. I give the number of admissions and deaths

There was an outbreack of cholera among the Troops, and of eighteen cases admitted to Hospital, twelve died. This accounts in a great measure for the increase in the mortality but not for the increase in sickness. The cause of this outbreak amonghet the Troops I cannot account for. No cases occurred amongst the Police in the Colony. The one Chinese Constable that was admitted with choleraic symptomscontracted the disease in the Chinese City of Kowloon, and was sent in to Hospital immediately on his return to the Colony. No case was admitted to or occurred in the Gaol. In both cases the quarters are inferior for the most part to those occupied by Troops both as regards ventilation and overcrowding, and in the case of the Police some of the Stations are very greatly inferior in the unwholesemeness of their surroundings. I shall have more to say on this subject when referring to the sanitation of the

The percentage of deaths to admissions was 5.03, the highest percentage but two in the last Sixteen of these deaths were from injuries. There were fourteen cases of gunshot wounds; of these two died. There was a larger number of severe injuries than usual, those of contused wounds, many of them of great severity, being more than double; the number being 40 in 1884 as compared with 83 in 1885.

In the last few years the number of surgical cases have bean greatly on the increase, and this is to be expected with the greater increase of manufactories having complicated machinery. This year the Superintendent was absent on sick leave for five months. During his absence Drs. Dodd, Pike, and Thompson of the Army Medical Department acted alternately in his place; but as their services could only be spared from their Military duties during the day, Dr. Marques performed the duties at night, or in his absence I was called upon

The services of another European wardmaster were required, and a temporary one has been appointed with a strong recommendation from mysolf that the appointment shall be made permanent for next year. Mr. Crow, the Apothecary and Analyst, was on the sick list for some time, and considerable difficulty was experienced during his temporary absence, but this was less than it might have been, had there not been a Chinese Student Apothecary of considerable experience. His serthere is a new Student Apothecary whom it will take a considerable time to instruct, before he can be of much service.

SMALL POX HOSPITAL Fourteen cases of Small Pox were admitted to this Hospital, of whom only one died. Most of them were of a mild type. In the summer months when no small pox cases are received, this building was used as a Cholera Hospital; nine cases were received, of whom six died. There were three Europeans, one coloured man, and five Chinese; of these, three Europeans and three Chinese died.
